When pressed for an answer regarding the truth of Barrill's affidavit, Cook said there was no truth in it from beginning to end.

RENO GIRL SECURES DIVORCE FROM CONVICT

Judge Pike yesterday signed the decree of divorce freeing Mable Hamilton Miner from her husband, Albert Lee Miner, on the ground that the husband had been convicted of a felony and was a convict in the United States prison at McNeil's Island.

The divorce marks the latest development in Miner's history, which has been a checkered one. Originally he was employed at Sparks, but lost his position there on account of charges of dishonesty being placed against him. He later went to Reno where he secured employment and was arrested a short time later on a charge of robbing the Wells-Fargo Express wagon of a pouch containing valuable jewelry. Miner was arrested at San Francisco, where he fled, but while there he had married Mable Hamilton, a Reno girl.

After his incarceration in prison Mrs. Miner applied for a divorce and has now been permitted to resume her maiden name.

Tigers Have Three Players Injured in Stopping Rally in the Ninth Inning Both Teams Have Won Three Games Each--Deciding Con- test Will be Saturday.

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, Oct. 14.—Detroit kept in the great fight for the world's baseball championship today by defeating Pittsburgh by 5 to 4 in a battle full of sensational and thrilling situations, and tonight the two teams are again tied, with three victories each. The seventh and deciding game will be played here on Saturday.

A fear inspiring rally by Pittsburgh in the ninth inning was stopped, after one run was scored, but three Detroit players were injured in stemming the rush of the Pittsburgh runs. Tom Jones, the Detroit first baseman, is the most seriously hurt. His neck and spine were injured in a collision with Wilson at first base. This resulted in Pittsburgh securing its run of that session. Charles Schmidt, the catcher, had his leg badly gashed in blocking Asquith off the plate in the final inning.

The play that finished the threatening rally of the National league champions resulted in an injury to Moriarty when he caught Wilson trying to steal third on Abaticchio's strikeout. In the same inning Moriarty's left knee was badly hurt when Wilson slid in to the base.

Tom Jones was so badly hurt that he was carried from the field unconscious. He was taken home in an ambulance and it is virtually certain that he will not be able to play in Saturday's game. Schmidt, it is thought, will be able to play, and there is no doubt that Moriarty will be in the decisive battle.

The injury to Jones necessitated the shifting of Crawford to first base, D. Jones to center and McIntyre to left field.

The Pittsburgh team got away in the lead by smashing out three runs on four successive hits off

Mullin in the first inning. After that Mullin was invincible until the ninth, when he weakened enough to get into a dangerous situation and was only able to extricate himself by another marvelous exhibition of pitching.

Detroit put up another of its wonderful uphill games. It scored one run in the first, and batted Willis off the slab by scoring two runs in the fourth and one more in the fifth. Camnitz succeeded Willis, and Detroit batted him hard and fought to get another run in the sixth. Camnitz was withdrawn when Hyatt batted for him in the seventh, and then the veteran Philippi stopped Detroit from further scoring.

The ninth inning rally of Pittsburgh teemed with tense moments and many dramatic incidents. At one time a hit meant the probable winning of the championship by Pittsburgh, as a single would have tied the score and a two-bagger would perhaps have put Pittsburgh in the lead. Pittsburgh went to bat with 5 to 4 against it in the last inning. Miller started with a single to right and Abstein put another in the same place, sending a run in front of the plate and Schmidt fielded it to first, but the collision with Wilson caused Jones to lose the ball, Miller scoring and Abstein going to third.
The attendance today was 10,535; receipts, $12,527.50, of which the national committee receives $1,251.75, and each club owner gets $5,632.87.

The score by innings:
Detroit — 1-0-0-2-1-0-0-x—5
Pittsburgh — 3-0-0-0-0-0-0-1—4
Batteries—
For Detroit, Mullin and Schmidt.
For Pittsburgh, Willis, Camnitz, Philippi and Gibson.

ASKS COURT FOR AID TO GET WATER RIGHTS

According to advices received in this city yesterday, an injunction order was granted in Reno by Judge Orr on the petition of the Western Pacific company, restraining C. R. Webster from preventing this company from taking water for its locomotives from his hot springs in Humboldt county.

The case is entitled the Western Pacific Railway company against C. R. Webster, and the complaint recites that Webster, as the owner of the springs, entered into a contract to supply water to the company for the use of its engines. The company claims that after it had expended about $300 digging ditches and erecting reservoirs for the water, Webster threatened to shut off the water supply, and therefore an injunction was asked.
The hot springs in question are located near the Blackrock desert, east of Lovelock.

The dissolute life of the countess and her extravagant adventures had made her notorious. Three years ago she issued two volumes of poems entitled, "Reveries" and "Thoughts in Voice."

PLEASING PLAY IS PRESENTED AT THE NEVADA

"THE CHARITY BALL" PROVES
GOOD ATTRACTION LAST EVENING

One of the most pleasing plays ever staged in Tonopah was presented last night at the Nevada theatre by Miss Lorraine Buchanan and company. The play, "The Charity Ball," is rich in comedy, with clever intervening pathetic scenes.

Miss Buchanan as Bess Van Buren was seen to advantage in an entirely different role from any yet played here and was charming in her childish sweet ways as the sister of the Van Buren boys. Paul Harvey was exceptionally good in the character of John Van Buren, lending much strength to the part.
Miss Erba Robeson as the blind mother, Mrs. Van Buren, was excellent, while Miss Louise Kirkwood as Ann Kruger was a picture of graceful charm. Wallace Howe, Judge Peter G. Knox handled some comedy scenes in an artistic manner and was ably sustained by Mr. Merle Stanton as Mrs. Caroline I. Peyster. Mr. Russell as Dick Van Buren and Mr. Stuart as Alec Robinson sustained their parts well throughout, while the other members of the company were very good in their various roles.
The company will give a matinee Saturday afternoon. Prices 25 and 35 cents. No reserved seats.
